There is a new On-Line Pilot Community in Ottawa....

On September 23 2009, I started a new Community Forum to complement the lack of resources available for Ottawa Student as well as registered Pilots. This site is for all Pilots in or around the Ottawa area, and also opened to anyone that enjoys flying, even if your not from Ottawa.

This New site will hold a slew of information and documents for students currently seeking there license as well as registered pilots. It's a way to get together at a common location on the web, discuss and share information and even organize get-togethers with you fellow Flying Friends, Fly-in's and more.

Come join the OttawaPilots community !
